

Catching waves

The surf's always up with this beautiful photographic poster. The Last Wave print, featuring an image captured by photographer Rob Glade-Wright in the 1960s, is $195 (frame not included) and measures H50cm x W70cm. huntingforgeorge.com

Power grid

Here's a snazzy way to keep track of important notices or display treasured photos and postcards. The Grid Mood Board ($149) comes in three neutral colours with leather straps and includes two oversized bulldog clips, one magnetic display box, and a postcard display with leather swing tag. handgdesigns.com

Raw appeal

Add an industrial edge to your living room with this stylish concrete-look side table. The Cynthia table ($89.95) is made from MDF and measures 50cm in diameter. For stockists, contact Emporium Home through its website. emporiumhome.com.au

Singing the blues

Kick back in spiffy style on this sumptuous sofa. The Hansen L-shape sofa (pictured in navy) is designed in Denmark for Sketch and features a solid-timber frame, oak legs and heavy-duty upholstery. It's $3795. clickonfurniture.com.au

Rock stars

Serve up a meal to remember with this set of three Mortar trays. Made from poly-resin stone, the trays come in three sizes (the smallest has a diameter of 20cm). A set of three is $59.95. For stockists, contact Amalfi through its website. amalfihomewares.com.au

Clay time

If you haven't seen the Edgar Degas exhibition at the National Gallery of Victoria, you'd better hop to it. This weekend is the last chance to view this stunning showcase. While you're there, check out Milly Dent's striking ceramics (pictured) at the NGV Design Store. The collection was inspired by Degas' work. ngv.vic.gov.au

This week's must-haves for your decor wish list

Spot on

Give your home a relaxed vibe with this stone-wash rug. The Indigo Spots rug, handwoven in India from cotton, has been block printed and dyed in an indigo vat. Prices start at $265 for a rug measuring L150cm x W90cm. langdonltd.com.au

Pot luck

Feast your eyes on the latest range of handpainted pots from Melbourne's own Pop & Scott. The Indigo Folk collection has an array of stunning designs, with lightweight pots made from fibreglass and plaster. Prices start at $135 for a small pot (H28cm, with a diameter of 33cm). popandscott.com

Wild at heart

We're pretty sure this super-cute cushion will be a roaring success. The Lion Snuggle cushion has been hand made from cotton yarn and is $89. There are also other Snuggle cushions, including Owl and Pirate, to choose from. miannandco.com.au

